

RÉSUMÉ

In the last 10 years, WalkingBear has spoken to hundreds of CEO and top manager groups internationally.

Since entering the training and consulting field in 1982, WalkingBear has revolutionized the way that business managers think of and manage one of, if not their largest assets. (The London Report).

During his career he has worked with many companies across industry lines, he has taught in schools and universities, has written hundreds of business articles and has been a featured speaker at numerous company business meetings and association conventions.

A high energy and fast paced speaker, WalkingBear uses wit and humor to keep his audiences engaged and learning.

A Vietnam War veteran and Pueblo Native American descendant, WalkingBear is originally from the Taos area of New Mexico and now lives in Southern Colorado near the Arkansas River. Founder and President of A/R Management Group, Inc, WalkingBear serves on the board of several organizations.
