

RÉSUMÉ

Hal Schaeffer, a nationally-recognized bankruptcy preference expert, is president of D&H Credit Services, Inc. (www.dandhcredit.com), a boutique consultancy specializing in creating bankruptcy preference defenses in the U.S. He has worked in credit, banking and cash flow for the last 35 years, with bankruptcy preference defense becoming a fast growing part of the business for the last eight years. He has created defenses in over 100 cases, is court certified and has been certified as an Expert Witness in Bankruptcy Preferences by the National Association of Credit Management. He has clients in the U.S., Canada and Europe. Mr. Schaeffer is the author of three business books and has contributed several chapters to a book on International Credit and Collections. His books, all published by John Wiley & Sons include Credit Risk Management, a case studies book; Financial Customer Service, a blueprint for successful order-to-cash management and The Essentials of Cash Flow. These works are based on his extensive knowledge of many industries compiled while consulting for numerous clients. He has also written for numerous publications including O'Connor-Ravell Express - Times Spring 2006 Edition: Bankruptcy Preference Action – Update! The Final Insult to a Job Well Done and American Bankruptcy Institute Bankruptcy Litigation Committee Newsletter January 2007 Edition: Hiring an Expert Witness in a Bankruptcy Preference Action Now and Tomorrow: Steps and Procedures throughout the Case. Mr. Schaeffer is a frequent and popular lecturer at credit events of all types both domestically in the US and internationally and is proficient at creating customized courses for clients as well as presenting generalized sessions at conferences and seminars such as the Credit Expo 2002 held in London, England.

H. A. (Hal)
SCHAEFFER, JR.

President

D&H CREDIT SERVICES