Rozanne Andersen

J.D., is widely recognized for her advocacy work on behalf of the collection, debt purchasing and financial services industries but equally acclaimed for her expertise in association law, corporate governance and general counsel services. Andersens 14+ years experience as Executive Vice President, General Counsel and CEO of ACA International, along with her experience as the Director of Federal and State Government Affairs has established her as an expert within the credit, collection and debt purchasing industry. She is routinely quoted and featured by media organizations including The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, CNN, ABC News, NBC News, Fox News Channel and others. Rozanne earned her J.D. from William Mitchell College of Law in 1983 and her B.S. from the University of Minnesota. She currently serves as Ontario Systems in-house legal and compliance counsel and oversees the sales and marketing teams. She has been named Attorney of the Year by Minnesota Lawyer magazine and was profiled by Collections and Credit Risk magazine as one of the Five Women You Should Know. She is a writer, blogger and experienced public speaker at many industry events.
